MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Membership in Georgia ACT is defined as follows:

- Community-Based Non-Profit Organization - A community-based (with defined geographic boundaries) Georgia non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization with a significant part of its purpose or mission addressing housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or a related purpose.
The organization's governance structure reflects the low-moderate income constituency being served. The organization has current audited financial statements or current financial statements reviewed by a CPA. The organization is actively engaged in implementing programs that further the mission of the organization.
- Non-Profit Organization - A non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization with a significant part of its purpose or mission addressing housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or a related purpose.
- For Profit Organization - An organization that supports the mission of Georgia ACT. For Profit Organization members could be a company, agency, intermediary, financial institutions, developers, builders or other organization engaged in housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or related purpose.
- Individual Member - An individual that supports the mission of Georgia ACT. Individual members are consultants, full-time students, community activists that support the mission of Georgia ACT and do not qualify as a non-profit or for-profit organization that are engaged in housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or related purpose.
