MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Members support the mission of Georgia ACT and are further defined as follows:

- Community-Based Nonprofit Organization – A community-based (with defined geographic boundaries) Georgia non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization with a significant part of its purpose or mission addressing housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or a related purpose. The organization's governance structure reflects the low-moderate income constituency being served. The organization has current audited financial statements or current financial statements reviewed by a CPA. The organization is actively engaged in implementing programs that further the mission of the organization.
- Other Non-Profit Organization – A non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization with a significant part of its purpose or mission addressing housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or a related purpose.
- For Profit Organization – For Profit Organization members are either a company, agency, intermediary, financial institutions, developers, builders or other organization engaged in housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or related purpose.
- Individual Member – Individual members are consultants and community activists that do not qualify as a non-profit or for-profit organization that are engaged in housing development, housing counseling, community economic development, community building, or related purpose.
- Student Member – An individual that is currently enrolled as a full-time college student. Proof of college status is required (Student ID, official copy of current class schedule, etc.).
